TEN CENTS PER WEEK

DELINQUENT TAX COLLECTOR TO BE ELECTED YEARLY

Provided For in Ordinance
Before Council Board
Tonight.

Sunday Selling Case in Police Court.

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETING.

Four ordinances will go before the board of councilmen tonight. One of them provides for the office of delinquent tax collector, to be elected for a year by the general council in December, and to be appointed by the mayor in the meantime. He is to receive 10 per cent for delinquents of the previous year, 25 per cent for bills over one year old and one-third of poll taxes he collects. One ordinance provides for running Union depot line cars to First street. One ordinance raises the price of all single lots in Oak Grove to $6 and one provides for sidewalks on Eleventh street between Broadway and Jefferson street.

Sunday Cases.
Special Judge David Browning this morning fined the Jacob (Biederman) Grocery company $20 for violation of the Sunday law, which says:

"No work or business shall be done on the Sabbath day, except the ordinary household offices, or other work of necessity or charity, or work required in the maintenance or operation of a ferry, skiff or steamboat, or steam or street railroad."

In the course of his remarks, the court suggested that a splendid police regulation would be to permit, as a necessity during the summer months, meat shops and groceries, handling fresh meats to remain open on Sunday to 8 or 9 o'clock morning.

The case was submitted to the court on a statement of facts in writing signed by the attorneys for the commonwealth and the defendants, which are in substance as follows:

"It is agreed by the parties in this case, that the defendant, the Jacob Biederman Grocery company, did, on Sunday, May 30, 1909, engage in its usual avocation, or business of conducting a grocery business and did on said day sell flour, meat and candy; that it kept a clerk and a member of its firm on duty during the day."

The court had no other evidence, and found that doing a general grocery business or engaging in the grocery business on Sunday is not a work of necessity.

The Walker Drug company case was submitted today.

Board of Health.
The board of health will meet Wednesday afternoon at the city hall. No quorum was present the regular meeting day.

BALLOONS SEEN SAILING SOUTH THIS AFTERNOON

Birmingham, Ala., June 7.—A balloon at a very high altitude passed east of this city at dawn today, going due south. It is thought to be one of the Indianapolis racers.

Indianapolis, June 7.—The balloon New York landed this morning at Corinth, Miss., according to a message received here from Forbes. The Hoosier is reported landed near there. The Indiana endurance race, which started Saturday under the auspices of the Aero Club of Indiana, was won by Dr. George Link and I. R. Irwin, of Indianapolis. They occupied the balloon Indianapolis and were in the air 22 hours, having landed Sunday at West Moreland, Tenn. No records were broken.

The Hoosier landed today at Greenbrier, Tenn., 300 miles from Indianapolis.

Magistrate Emery Opposes Payment and Moves Ac- ceptance of Bridge Bond--- Attorney Barkley Speaks.

Bitter denunciation of Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane for her criticism of the county institutions was given this morning in fiscal court by County Judge R. T. Lightfoot. In addition to the resolution, which was passed by the court unanimously, Judge Lightfoot made a speech to the members of the court, and in vigorous language denounced the criticism of the institutions. He said that he held the members of the court responsible for the condition of the county institutions, and he objected to any woman from Kalamazoo coming to McCracken county and criticizing the public institutions.

Judge Lightfoot introduced the resolutions, and on motion of Magistrate J. J. Bleich the resolution was adopted unanimously.

Bert Johnson, who is paid $100 a month by the fiscal court to supervise the construction of the bridges over Clark's river and Perkins' creek, for doing which the county road supervisor also draws $100 a month was allowed $150 for the use of his blueprint and drawing up specifications for the Clark's river bridge. Mr. Johnson asked the members of the court if they thought his services were of any value. He said he was willing to take anything, or if the members of court thought this services were not worth anything he would be satisfied without remuneration.

The Line of Friendship.
Judge Lightfoot said he realized how he had overstepped the line of friendship for Bert Johnson by forcing him to allow the county to use his blueprint for the bridge. Since a reconsideration he said he thought that the county should pay Mr. Johnson for his plans. Magistrate Broadfoot made a motion that Bert Johnson be allowed $150 for the use of the blueprint. There was some discussion and a sounding was made as to whether that was sufficient, but Mr. Johnson said he would be satisfied with any sum. Magistrates Emery and Dunaway voted "nay," but the money was allowed Johnson.

After considerable discussion and talk the bond of the Vincennes Bridge company, which secured the contract for the erection of the concrete bridges over Clark's river and Perkins' creek was ratified. The bridge company offered the Federal Union Surety company, and County Attorney Barkley has letters from the insurance commissioner saying the surety company is doing business in this state and is solvent. The surety company offered a new bond, which was signed by the vice president of the surety company.

The first bond was signed by the agent of the surety company, while the president of the bridge company did not sign it. County officials had doubts as to the validity of the bond, and the new bond was signed by the vice president of the surety company, and the treasurer and general manager of the bridge company. Some of the magistrates appeared indifferent to approving the bond, but County Attorney Barkley was on his feet and said it was a good bond, and that the surety company was solvent. Following his statement Magistrate Emery made a motion that the bond be approved and it passed although Magistrate Brooks voted "nay."

It was stated in court that many residents of the county are opposed to the erection of the bridge over Clark's river, and Magistrate Brooks opposed the erection of the bridge to a sufficient extent to vote "nay." However, the contract with the Vincennes Bridge company has been signed, and there was not a loop hole for the county to escape.

Neither the Clark's river bridge nor the Perkins' creek bridge has been located, and on motion of Magistrate Bleich a committee, consisting of Magistrates Bleich, Emery and Dunaway, was appointed to locate the bridges. George Gardner, an unsuccessful bidder, made a speech to the court, and said it would cost $2,500 to build approaches to the Clark's river bridge if the location of the bridge was changed. He said it would be more economical to build a pontoon bridge at a cost of $500, and erect the concrete bridge at the same location of the present iron bridge, using the same approaches.

The Scaffold for Freeman.
Sheriff Ogilvie was instructed to purchase anything necessary for the execution of George Freeman, the condemned negro.

John Thompson, road supervisor, was instructed to advertise for bids for grading and graveling the new Fiscal Court's Abuse of Mrs. Crane.

The following absurdity, prepared by County Judge Lightfoot, was introduced in the fiscal court this morning by Magistrate Bleich and unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, our county institutions have been recently visited by the only real reformer of the entire universe, and whereas after the thunder and the flashing lightning incident to the investigation have subsided and the waters of the mighty Ohio have gone back to their normal station, and whereas, it has also been reported to me that one Caroline Bartlett Crane among other great things she did while at our sanitarium recently, the said Caroline Bartlett Crane being the one who cleaned up Kalamazoo, did then and there pull down the sock upon the right foot of one of the male inmates of said institution, and whereas, it is reported that she did find one large speck of dirt located upon the left side of the large toe of the right foot of said inmate, and having authority invested in me by virtue of the office of county judge to make such corrections and criticisms, as may seem necessary as to the keeper of said sanitarium, now, therefore, I, R. T. Lightfoot, judge of the county of McCracken, and with all the dignity that I can possibly command, do hereby order and command that William A. Thompson, the keeper of said sanitarium, shall at once, in the presence of a committee composed of Magistrates Emery, Bleich and Broadfoot, proceed with great care and diligence to locate said speck, spot, splotch or lump of dirt in any quantity whatever it may find upon the said large toe of the right foot of the said inmate, and he shall be required after the location of said speck, spot or lump of dirt, to then and there with great humiliation and shame remove the same from the large toe of the right foot of said male inmate in the name of and in the honor of Caroline Bartlett Crane. He shall be required to wash said foot in the most approved a la Delsarte fashion, using Kalamazoo perfumes and using a ceremony much after the fashion of that used by the said Caroline Bartlett Crane, when she cleaned up Kalamazoo, and immediately thereafter it shall be the duty of said committee in conjunction with said Will Thompson, after replacing said sock to sing loud hosannas—most of which shall be in behalf of said Caroline Bartlett Crane.

The said Will A. Thompson shall then be required when having so done as directed, to make due report to the said Caroline Bartlett Crane as to the removal of said dirt and as to what said disposition there is made of the same. The said committee shall then return in solemn procession to the city of Paducah and resume the glad and joyful and yet even tenor of their ways. Upon the failure of the said Will Thompson to obey the orders herein given, said committee, in conjunction with Jim Woods and Jim Collins, shall be required to visit punishment upon the back of said Will A. Thompson in such manner and to such extent as they may deem proper and just.

To one James W. Eaker, the jailer of the said unfortunate county of McCracken, I am compelled to say that it is charged by the said Caroline Bartlett Crane, who cleaned up Kalamazoo, and but for whom Kalamazoo would not be cleaned even at this time, that you are not conducting the office of jailer after the most approved precedent established at Kalamazoo by the benign Caroline Bartlett Crane. Hereafter, you will acquaint yourself with schedules of time used by the said Caroline Bartlett Crane at many of her various jails and prisons and you will only permit your prisoners to be turned out of their cage at the same time that the prisoners are given at Kalamazoo. You will also drop your southern dialect and hereafter, with intense nasal twang, use the brogue and trill the "r" like they do in Kalamazoo. You will as near as possible cloth yourself as they do in Kalamazoo and when you speak you must always use the soft pedal.

Above all I enjoin upon you the necessity of your procuring and providing the negro prisoners with a bountiful and goodly supply of Kalamazoo songs, as I very greatly fear the old time southern songs are detrimental to the morals of the negro and will and must be avoided as to the use thereof in the jail from this time hence, and only Kalamazoo songs shall be used.

To John R. Thompson, the supervisor of roads in McCracken county, Kentucky, I direct and command that in the future instead of eating large quantities of hay, alfalfa and other home-grown products of the fodder kind, he shall be required to diet himself exclusively upon Kalamazoo celery, which will give him tone and vigor, and enable him to go forth in the bright sunshine of a working morning and take up his labor upon the roads with aesthetic taste and along the lines of the way they do in Kalamazoo. He shall also be required to feed his horses and mules engaged in the work upon public roads the same sort of celery, varying the amount as the necessities of the situation will demand.

Dr. L. E. Young, the county physician, shall be required to make his daily trips to the sanitarium on horseback hereafter and he shall be required to attire himself in the garb of the Knights of old, providing himself with a helmet, a spere and a trumpet and upon going and returning to and from said sanitarium he shall cry out with loud acclaim the greatness of Caroline Bartlett Crane and he shall see to it that the inhabitants along the route thereof shall be daily reminded of her greatness and of four corresponding humility and ignorance.

The members of the fiscal court shall be required to keep their feet clean under any and all circumstances and any member of said court, whose foot or feet, toe or toes, or any part thereof, or any territory contiguous thereto, that shall be found to be dirty, unclean, soiled, blemished or in any manner not coming up to the Kalamazoo standard shall forfeit all right to his or their per diem.

Dr. Moore Resigns

The Rev. S. B. Moore, pastor of the First Christian church, has resigned his charge here, to be effective not later than October 1. Dr. Moore, since accepting the pulpit, has done much to build up the church and has made a large circle of friends outside his congregation, who will regret his leaving. Dr. and Mrs. Moore have planned a tour abroad and will leave as soon as the charge is relinquished.

WAR BREAKS IN BREATHITT ONCE AGAIN

Former Sheriff Ed Callahan
Mortally Shot.

Clansmen Declare They Will Have Revenge.

Militia Will be Called Out at Once.

JUDGE TOM COOK DEFEATED.

Jackson, Ky., June 7. (Special).—Ed Callahan, former sheriff of Breathitt county, was shot and fatally wounded this morning early in front of his store at Crockettville by an unknown assassin hidden in ambush. It is supposed to have been one of Callahan's former henchmen.

Callahan was in the lumber business in Jackson when he became allied with the Hargises and figured with them through all their bloody feuds. He was elected sheriff when Hargis was elected county judge and during his term the assassinations of Cox, Cockrell and Marcum occurred. Callahan was a dead shot. The fact that his opponent didn't meet him fairly stirred Callahan's immediate followers.

A battalion of national guards will be ordered into Breathitt county to keep order. Callahan's followers declare they will kill every adherent of the Cockrell-Deaton faction. Callahan had known for some time his life was in danger.

Hanberry Is Nominated.

Murray, Ky., June 7. (Special).—J. T. Hanberry, of Hopkinsville, defeated Circuit Judge Tom Cook 268 votes for the circuit judicial nomination in the Third district. Hanberry carried Christian 345 and Trigg by 25. Cook carried Lyon by 40 and Calloway, his own county, by 42. This is a victory for the so-called law and order element, headed by former County Judge A. J. G. Wells, Senator Conn Linn and the Hollands, so far as this county is concerned. Denney Smith, candidate for renomination for commonwealth's attorney, had no opposition.

MISS RUTH HALL IS QUITE ILL OF MALARIAL FEVER.

Miss Ruth Hall, one of the teachers at the Washington building, who is seriously ill of malarial fever, was removed today from the home of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Miller on North Seventh street, to the hospital. Her father, Dr. W. A. Hall, of DuChien, Wis., has arrived to attend her bedside, while her sister, Miss Sidney Hall, also of DuChien, will arrive this evening. Miss Hall was ill with tonsillitis several weeks ago, but recovered and returned to school when malarial fever developed. Miss Hall was quite ill yesterday and last night, but is resting more quietly today.

Ball Game Fight

Adam Hughes, captain of the Fisherville baseball nine, is confined to his room today suffering from a broken lower jawbone as the result of his team winning from the Mechanicsburg team yesterday morning. In a fight Hughes was struck with a bat on the lower jaw and the bone was broken on both sides. Hughes is a married man and lives at 1423 South Ninth street. It is probable that arrests will be made just as soon as Hughes is able to be out, although the police were not put wise to the scrap yesterday morning.

ATTORNEYS LEFT AT NOON FOR CINCINNATI, OHIO.

Attorneys J. D. Mocquot, W. V. Eaton and W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., left at noon today for Cincinnati, where these attorneys have two cases coming up in the circuit court of appeals. All the attorneys are interested in the case of Bona Allen and the American Pad and Textile company against the bankrupt Starks-Ullman Saddlery company seeking a manufacturer's lien. Attorneys Mocquot and Bradshaw will try the case in which the creditors of Thomas C. Leech are trying to recover the diamonds, which Referee in Bankruptcy Bagby gave to the creditors, and which Judge Evans gave back to Mrs. Leech on a debt that Mr. Leech owed Mrs. Leech some time ago. The case is now in the circuit court of appeals of Cincinnati and will be heard the first of this week.

Capt. and Mrs. James Koger left yesterday morning on the steamer City of Salt Lake, making the round trip to St. Louis.

County School Board Contracts For Erection of Three New School Houses and Repairs to Others

The sum of the bids is $2,853.70.

All of the successful bidders will be required to give a satisfactory bond of double the amount of the contract price.

There was some complaint that contractors had not seen the advertisements of the work. Several school trustees said they knew several contractors who expressed themselves as wanting to bid, but they did not see the advertisements.

W. C. GORDON LINGERING TWIXT LIFE AND DEATH.

Hovering between life and death, W. C. Gordon, local manager of the Singer Sewing Manufacturing company, is at Riverside hospital with a fractured skull. Yesterday he rallied slightly, but today his condition was critical. Gordon, Saturday night, arose from his bed on the second floor at Third and Washington streets and fell head-first out a window 20 feet to the concrete sidewalk below.

WHISKY'S WHISKY IF MADE OF GRAIN; OTHERWISE BOOZE

Washington, June 7.—Whisky is whisky when it is made of grain. When made of potatoes, apple peelings, corn stalks, chips or any other thing, the booze derived is not whisky, according to the decision of Lloyd W. Boyers, of the department of justice, to whom the president referred the question bearing on the interpretation of the pure food law.

Wouldst thou enjoy a long life, a

NO TIME TO STOP.

Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane, inspector for the state board of health,
after two days' careful inspection, reported Saturday night to a mass meeting, lauding Paducah above other cities of the state for the activity of its health department and the evidences of generally improving sanitary conditions. But that is not all,
she pointed out wherein we are still remiss. The value of her work here does not rest in the mutual exchange of courtesies between Mrs. Crane and the citizens, or the complacency with which citizens regard the present condition of the city; but in the spirit of co-operation she may have invoked
in further efforts to make Paducah everything it ought to be and is capable of being. It is pleasant to realize, that after a year or more of storming and scolding on our part,
earnest effort on the part of volunteer civic workers and activity on the part of officials, evidences of better things are beginning to appear.
But we must not stop there.

We cannot but wonder if her speech has inspired some woman, gifted and persistent as she is, who will turn this town wrong side out,
as she did Kalamazoo, Mich., and scour it through and through. Or will the people settle back in contentment, just a trifle disappointed because they took the trouble to sit throughout her speech on a hot Saturday night in the hope of hearing
some sensational charges?

We do feel that Paducah really needs no leaders other than it has.
There is an aggressive health officer
in Paducah, backed by a willing administration and an intelligent health department, doing his best. We do not doubt a word of what Mrs. Crane said about needing a health officer, who can afford to devote all his time to the work, which would mean a high salary for him; but the same thing can be accomplished in another way. The health officer's time now is occupied principally making the rest of us do our duty. If everyone of us obeyed the laws of Kentucky and Paducah and honesty and health, the health officer's work would be reduced so much that he could do it easily for $50 a month. Make sewer connections, close up your wells, report cases of contagion, stop spitting
on the sidewalk and dumping refuse,
where it spreads disease, remedy such conditions on your premises as you recognize are a menace to health, and aid him, which you can do without going out of your way.

The schools can accomplish much,
by instructing the children in hygiene and sending pamphlets home with them, teaching them to abhor waste paper and fruit skins on the street, just as their parents do about the house. Parents can do this, too. Another generation could be so trained in hygiene and sanitation that every soul in the city would be a volunteer (almost an involuntary) health officer.

Dr. Sights has compelled over 500 sewer connections, in district No. 1, since his incumbency. There are as many more in the downtown district not connected. Mrs. Crane noticed that. It's a pity they have to be compelled to do this thing for their own protection and that of their neighbors.

Let us not drop this work, where Mrs. Crane found it. Let us go on with the work and then invite another inspection next year and Paducah will receive the greatest advertisement that possibly could be devised.

POLITICS AND REFORM.

The News-Democrat Sunday morning complimented Mrs. Crane highly on her inspection of Paducah, but said 'her criticism of the county sanitarium was not on the whole just'.
Yet, in a two column writeup of her address at the mass meeting in the Broadway Methodist church, there was not one word about what she said
of the county sanitarium or the county or city jail.

This is only pertinent, because in the same editorial the News-Democrat
charges The Sun with making political capital of her visit by exploiting the faults she found with the county institutions. Now a word as to that.
Friday night there was a conference
at the Woman's club between Mrs.
Crane, county and city officials and volunteer civic workers. Both papers were represented. Mrs. Crane expressly conditioned that the meeting was not public; she was only making her report to the meeting in order that a full discussion of conditions, causes and remedies might be enjoyed, and she might acquire information, which would enable her to do justice both to the community and the officials at the mass meeting. She asked the newspaper men not to report what she said at the meeting,
but to await the public meeting.

However, the News-Democrat did the next morning report what she said, except as to the condition of county institutions, and so alluded to the controversy with Judge Lightfoot
as to give the impression that Mrs.
Crane was unjust in her criticisms and Judge Lightfoot, with pardonable loyalty, was defending the whole community from the aspersions of a meddler. We are glad to observe that the News-Democrat by saying 'the work she has done is a good work',
shows the falsity of Judge Lightfoot's position.

Saturday morning the ladies requested The Sun to put the incident
in a fair light, which The Sun did, but referring to only so much of the proceedings as was concerned with the controversy, and faithfully adhering to the promise not to publish her report until she made it at the mass meeting.

Now as to the unjustness of Mrs.
Crane's criticism. First, let us see what she said favorable to the county sanitarium. She said it is the best equipped, located and constructed in the state, and that it is one of the best she ever saw. She said with a little reform in the method of administration it could be made a model for the whole country. She condemned the practice of farming out the inmates to the keeper, who makes a profit out of the 40 cents a day
paid by the county for their keeping;
the practice of having cooking and nursing done by paupers, who cannot take care of themselves; the practice of allowing the dead to lie overnight in the sleeping room with the other inmates, or until the corner arrives; the practice of burying the dead without religious ceremony. Is there anything unjust in that?

The Woman's club could make arrangements with the pastors of Paducah to preach funerals out there on notice. A superintendent could be secured for $75, and a trained nurse for $50 and her board, who would see that the county physician's orders are carried out. The tuberculosis patients could be housed in tents, where they would receive proper treatment for their malady and be isolated, and the nurse could cure some of the apparently incurables and free the county
from the expense of their keeping.

At little expense a dead house
could be provided and the groceries
could be bought by contract. Mrs.
Crane complimented the county physician, and she congratulated the fiscal court on the excellent almshouse it provided. Her criticism was, not only not unjust, but it was kindly and given in a spirit of helpfulness, with the single purpose of enabling Mc-Cracken county to have a model county sanitarium.

We have sufficient confidence in the fiscal court to believe that, notwithstanding the unfortunate incident in which the county judge figured so unhappily, the magistrates will take such steps as are necessary to effect
these reforms, self-evidently needed.

The necessity for a matron at the county jail, where male prisoners wait on the female prisoners, will be apparent to any disinterested citizen.
That is no reflection on the jailer;
but it is not like Kentucky to leave,
even an unfortunate woman, unprotected that way, when the fact is brought home. Here is work for the Woman's club.

The county of McCracken has no
institution approaching in conception or effort a real juvenile court. It has no such thing as a "probation officer."

It is true that the county judge does try juveniles and send them to the reform school or acquit them.
County Officer Jack Nelson, attired
in uniform, and drawing $100 a month, does serve that court, arrest juvenile offenders and take them to the Lexington reform school at the court's orders, for which he receives mileage and makes a net profit of close to $40 every trip. That $100 a month would support a matron or a nurse or both of them.

HOW TO VOTE NOW A SUBJECT NEEDING MUCH ATTENTION

Big Prizes Won by Contestants Who Use Judgment
in Withholding.

Vote Enough to Advertise
and Not a Vote More.

LIMIT RULE.

No candidate will be allowed to cast for publication in The Sun or Associate Newspapers
more than 25,000 votes before June 9, and not more than 50,000 before June 16. After that time the limit will be raised to accommodate a much heavier polling and later in the contest
will be lifted altogether.
This limit rule refers only to the publication of votes. All candidates may secure and hold in reserve as many votes as they please, to be cast and counted
by the close of the contest.

How to vote is a subject that should be considered well by the contestants
in The Sun and Associate Newspapers' Great Voting Contest. Many a big prize in a contest of this kind has been won by one live opponent over another simply because the former used better judgment in letting the other man know what he had.

The advice of the contest management at all times is, vote just enough to advertise yourself. Have your score large enough to let your friends
know you are in the race in dead earnest, but not so large as to give your hand away to your opponent.

Always the man with the biggest score is the shining mark for his opponents and his lead incites other equally energetic contestants to redoubled efforts. If you would make a successful race, hold a large number of your votes in reserve to be voted when they are most needed.
This reserve strength inspires a feeling of security and confidence, without which much is likely to be lost
by discouragement.

All of this should be well considered by the candidate who goes in to win. Vote enough to advertise, but not enough to give your hand away.
Let your friends know you are in the race, but don't make yourself a shining mark for your opponents.

This advice based on years of experience in contest management is given for the present consideration of contestants and will be timely after the limit rule is raised.

Watch for the next bonus but hustle in the meantime. Everything you do this week will count.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Situated below the incline on the north side is a pen ten feet square without a roof. It is known as the dog pound. Within this prison are confined about 50 howling maniacs, their faces filled with despair, their eyes looking toward the deity and pleading for mercy. The only food visible is a putrid carcass that stinks to high heaven, and a few of the smaller dogs hide inside the ribs of the carcass to escape the rays of a scorching sun. Do you think such treatment is the correct thing for man's best friend? Let them be what they may, there is not a "Judas" among them. They have violated no law, moral or otherwise.
They are not responsible for their presence among us. The only offense charged up to them is that they are delinquent tax payers. What would the two-footed delinquent think of such treatment? Would a 10-foot box be large enough to contain the two-footed delinquents? Fifty yards distant is a grewsome sight. It consists of about 25 dead bodies without Christian or any other burial. If these dogs deserve death, why not kill them in a humane manner? To make him any more dog but certainly makes us much less human. The citizens of that locality are entitled to some consideration other than to have to listen to the pitiful ravings of those otherwise inoffensive dogs.
Yours truly,
JOHN DEAN.

Ancient Use of Bloodhounds.

A long time ago bloodhounds were in common use in the Highlands of Scotland for tracking fugitive warriors in the clan feuds; and they were used also in the wars between England and Scotland. Wallace and Bruce were both pursued with blood-hounds. In Queen Elizabeth's time the Earl of Essex employed 800
bloodhounds in helping him to suppress the Irish rebellion.—Newcastle

THE STATE PRESS.

Mrs. Crane.

The greatest work the state board of health has done in Kentucky in many years was in securing the services of Mrs. Crane to lecture on civic righteousness in the leading cities. She has done a wonderful work. The coming, as this organization joined

The people of Owensboro long ago

daytime and that the Evening Inquirer gives it to them while it is hot.—Owensboro Inquirer.

JAPANESE HURT THE FRENCH.

Former's Cheap Labor Creates Trouble Among Button-Makers.

There is a big strike in a French town and the military has been called out. A correspondent of the New York Times assures us that the remote cause of the strike is Japanese cheap labor. Labor is fairly cheap in France, but you cannot get button-makers in that country for 25 cents a day as you can in Japan.

Button-making in France is an old industry. In Japan it is a new one—about ten years old. Five years ago the Japanese started exporting their button product. The United States took about $140,000 worth in 1904. In 1907 Japan exported about $1,000,000 worth, most of them to France and Germany.

The inference is that the French industry has been so crippled by the Japanese that its promoters cannot pay good wages. Result: A strike.

Whether that deduction is accurate or not, there is little doubt that Japan one day will be a formidable competitor in the markets of the world. Her people are wide awake, ingenious and enterprising. That they may be able to drive us all out of business, as the Times correspondent fears, on account of the cheap labor available, is not likely. Her labor will not always be as cheap as it is now.—Boston Globe.

It Sued Him.

An Irishman having resided the required number of years in this country, one day made application to the judge for final naturalization papers. The judge, following the usual practice, interrogated the applicant in a general way with reference to his knowledge of things American, to the end of determining whether he would prove a good citizen. Among other questions put was, "Have you read the Constitution?" "Yes, Your Honor," glibly replied the Irishman, "and I'm glad to say that I was very much pleased with it."—West Bulletin.

K. of C. Auxiliary Entertain for Visiting Ladies.
The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus entertained in a very delightful and hospitable manner yesterday the ladies from Morganfield, Henderson, and Louisville who accompanied the Sir Knights from these cities to Paducah.

In the morning representatives from the local auxiliary met the visitors at the Palmer House and went with them to the St. Francis de Sales church, where the service was held. In the afternoon street cars were chartered and the visitors were taken over the city to the various points of interest.

A beautiful banquet was given in the evening at the Knights of Columbus hall by the auxiliary in honor of the women. The hall was effectively decorated in the colors red and white and the tables were attractively arranged. Crimson Rambler roses and Mammolas emphasized the red and white color motif in a charming way.

Mrs. John J. Doran presided at the banquet and a number of clever toasts were given as follows:
"Our Guests"—Mrs. P. F. Lally.
"The Local Auxiliary"—Mrs. Kate Mulvin.
"Charity"—Mrs. James Keegan.

French Compromise.
An amusing story of compromise is mentioned in a Paris contemporary. It seems that the law of France requires parents to name their children either after the saints in the calendar or from a personage in history.

A citizen of Troyes went to the registrar to inscribe the name of his little daughter, whom he wished to know as Marianne. The registrar adjusted his spectacles, scratched his head and then declared it was impossible. Marianne did not comply with either of the requirements. Finally the matter was arranged to the satisfaction of both the parent and the registrar.

So the child was given the name Mary Anne. To the parents it was almost what they wanted, and the law was satisfied.—London Globe.

Trouble Averted.
A Washington man, much given to long foot tours through Virginia, once came upon an unkempt and melancholy-looking person stretched under a tree, who, upon the approach of the pedestrian, immediately executed a "hurry touch" for a dime.

Now the Washington man had, a short distance back, been talking to a prosperous farmer, who had complained of the difficulty of obtaining labor; accordingly he said to the Lobo as he handed him the coin: "About half a mile down, my friend, there's a farmer looking for men to help him in his fields."

The melancholy-looking person bowed as politely as possible, considering his sitting posture, and replied: "Thanks. I might as well stroll down that way accidental-like."—Harper's Magazine.

BUTCHERS GETTING ANXIOUS

People are eating more spaghetti—particularly Faust Brand Spaghetti—knowing it to be not only cheaper than meat and the equal of meat in nutriment, but the superior of meat as a food digested and productive of minimum body heat—a food that means hearty appetites at meals, and sustained energy between meals.

Faust Spaghetti also makes a strong appeal to the cook, for it can be served in such a variety of ways as never to tire the palate.

All enjoy it. Spaghetti Italian style—with tomato sauce, cheese, eggs, mushrooms, oysters—fried in soup—as puddings—these are but a few of the suggestions found in the book of recipes sent free on request.

TO BE HANGED

GEORGE FREEMAN MUST PAY PENALTY OF CRIME.

Sheriff Ogilvie Receives Authority to Proceed With Preparations.

Official notice was received today by Sheriff John W. Ogilvie from Governor Willson that George Freeman, colored, the murderer of his paramour, Essie Cobb, colored, must hang, and the date was set June 25. Freeman was convicted at the January term of circuit court and the decision was sustained by the court of appeals. Freeman shot and killed the Cobb woman and then gave the police a battle. Since he has been in jail he has become converted and is a constant reader of the Bible. Many requests have been received by the sheriff for tickets to the hanging, but the message from the governor says Freeman must be hung in the presence of not over 50 people. Sheriff Ogilvie was authorized by fiscal court to erect a scaffold. The last negro executed was in 1897, when "Devil" Winston was hanged.

Avoid the crowd and delay at the end of the month by payment of city tax bills now.

City taxes due June 1, 1909, now ready for collection.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles and a severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I could not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash—and was entirely cured after three months' use of them."—Mrs. S. A. Gardner, Me.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial. This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

A WELL COOKED DINNER

If you have a good cook is assured when you use a Gas Stove or Gas Range. The heat is steady and uniform, which is not the case with a wood or coal stove, and you can raise or lower the flame as you please—which, of course, is impossible on any other kind of cook stove. To make a fire, you simply turn on the gas and apply a match. To put it out, turn off the gas.

COOK WITH GAS

city health departments occupied seats in the altar.

Announcing her theory, Mrs. Crane said in substance, that when the population was rural and everyone had a considerable area of ground around his home, every man could make the conditions under which he and his family lived. If one man did not take proper sanitary precautions the consequence fell only on himself and family. When people began to live in urban communities the sanitary question became a public one, and everybody's health became dependent upon the condition of his neighbor's premises and the public streets and grounds and improvements. In a city no matter how carefully a man looks after the sanitary condition of his premises, if his neighbor's premises are not sanitary, the first man's precautions go for naught and his health and comfort may be ruined in spite of his utmost endeavor. Therefore, the whole community must cooperate in improving conditions or the effort is to that extent fruitless.

Another theory she advanced was that it is not sufficient for a housewife to be careful about the cleanliness with which the foods are handled in the kitchen. Time was when every man kept his own cow, made his own butter, raised his own vegetables and butchered his own cattle, that the family foods could be safeguarded at home. Now, if tubercular cattle are slaughtered or milked, the meat handled in a filthy manner, the milk allowed to accumulate dirt or germs, or the bread is baked in a dirty bakery, all the care expended upon the kitchen goes for naught, because the food is dirty and germ laden when it arrives. Mrs. Crane advised housewives to take interest in finding out the condition of the dairies from which they get their milk, the market stall from which they get their meat and the bakery from which they get their bread; because when these men find that women were interested in these things and that cleanliness will increase their trade, they will be clean.

Compliments Dr. Farley. She said Paducah's dairies and slaughter houses are above the average of the state. One dairy is a model, and most of them are improving, though one or two are still filthy. She complimented Meat and Milk Inspector Ed Farley personally for his work. She said, however, that a union milk depot and a union abattoir should be constructed.

She said the flies are bad at the market house, conveying germs. She thought four doors enough in the meat market, provided with revolving screens. She said butchers drive long spikes into their meat blocks, making indentations, which fill with meat particles and cannot be cleaned out. Some of their tools are not kept clean, men spit in the market house, and the cold storage is very dirty.

One bakery was exceptionally fine, but for the ubiquitous fly. Most others are dark and dirty. She said the market is better than the average.

The Streets. She said the streets are very clean, but she remarked about the drainage problem of a level town and said the surface water, which breeds mosquitoes and bad odors, should be drained at all hazards.

She deplored the fact that Paducah has no playgrounds, and many business houses have no sanitary connections, while people with sanitary connections at their homes, have none for their servants on the same premises, and dry wells are adding to the dangers of life in the city.

The schools are too crowded, medical inspection should be secured, so that all children will start into school under the most favorable circumstances; and she thought it wrong to make young girls climb four stories to the High school rooms.

The Jails and Almshouse. The city jail is underground and necessarily unsanitary for lack of proper air and light. The county jail is crowded and dark. Prisoners are allowed to mingle freely, condemned murderers being associated with a misdemeanor prisoner in for six months. Men wait on the women prisoners, some of whom may be federal prisoners and modest, decent women. She said a matron should be employed by all means for the women.

Keep It On Hand

Woman's Tonic

When you're tired and nervous, worn out and weak, you need a good tonic. You need a strength-giving, invigorating medicine. Naturally, you want something of known merit—a standard preparation.

Try Cardui, the popular medicine for women. This preparation has been successfully used; by thousands of women, for more than half a century. Letters come to us daily, telling of the benefit and relief Cardui has given. These letters recommend Cardui for headache, dizziness, fainting, pains in the side or limbs, and for all those troubles from which only women suffer.

Note this letter from Mrs. R. C. Berry, 124 N. Burke St., Kansas City, Kans. She writes: "I am more than pleased with the results obtained from Cardui. I have taken 5 bottles and am in much better health than ever before. I was troubled with female disorders and suffered so much that I could not be left alone. I found relief in Cardui and keep it in the house all the time."

Cardui is a purely vegetable preparation, scientifically prepared and consisting only of harmless ingredients. It's a safe, reliable medicine. Try Cardui. It's the tonic you need. For sale at all druggists.

Take CARDUI

upon his goodness of heart. Paupers in McCracken county are buried without the benefit of clergy.

She said McCracken county has the equipment for affording a model institution to the state and should have one.

Mrs. Crane complimented the county and city health departments and said they are not paid enough and have not enough money to work with, but are doing creditable work.

WAR TROPHIES DECK ACADEMY

Flags and Guns at Annapolis
Mark Famous Victories.

William E. Curtis Writes of Prowess Shown on Land and Sea Since the Revolution.

U. S. CHERISHES COLLECTION.

William E. Curtis says in the Chicago Record-Herald—The naval academy possesses a valuable collection of memorials and trophies, consisting of guns and flags and other articles of the highest possible historic interest, many of them having been captured from the enemy. There are also a number of models of famous ships belonging to the navy of the United States, which are of peculiar interest especially to navy men and persons interested in naval history. In making the design for the new magnificent academy no provision was made for a museum, and there is no place where the relics can be assembled, which was a great mistake. There are a number of niches in the corridors of several of the buildings in which trophies can be placed, and in the latest appropriation bill congress provided $10,000 to pay the expense of providing a museum in which precious flags may be displayed and preserved. There is also a plan for the academy building which will be used for museum purposes as far as possible, and the relics will thus be stowed away wherever a suitable place can be found for them. There are fifteen niches in all—eleven in the academy building and four in Bancroft Hall—which are now being prepared with the assistance of the officials of the National Museum of Washington.

A list of flags, nearly one hundred in number, is on file at the office of the superintendent, with explanatory notes which make the blood stir as one reads them. Among others are the ensign and pennant of the Guerriere, an English frigate which was captured by the frigate Constitution, Captain Isaac Hull, August 19, 1812, after an engagement of thirty minutes at sea. The Guerriere lost fifteen killed and sixty-four wounded, and was so much cut to pieces that she was not worth taking into port, so Captain Hull set fire to her and blew her up. The Constitution lost seven killed and seven wounded. Shortly before she made a memorable escape off the New Jersey coast from an English squadron of five vessels after being chased for three days. Captain Hull was awarded a medal by congress.

The next is the ensign of the Reindeer, an English brig, captured June 23, 1814, by the sloop-of-war Wasp, Captain Johnston Blakeley, after a desperate battle. The Reindeer was cut to pieces and blown up. A medal was awarded to Captain Blakeley by congress for this action. The Wasp also captured the English brig Avenge and several other prizes, but never came to port again. She was last heard from October 9, 1814. Since then all traces of her have been lost. There are several other flags captured by our ships in the war of 1812, but even more interesting are several that were floated at the mastheads of our small but gallant fleet. The most interesting of the latter is the battle flag of Commodore Oliver H. Perry, which was hoisted at the masthead of the flagship Lawrence as a signal for action on Lake Erie Sept. 10, 1813. The flag was originally blue and was embroidered in white letters "Don't Give Up the Ship," the last words of Captain James Lawrence, after whom the flagship was named, who had been mortally wounded in the action between the Chesapeake and the Shannon.

Another Flag.
Another flag of equal interest is that which floated at the masthead of the U. S. S. Kearsarge during the engagement with the confederate privateer Alabama off Cherbourg, France, June 19, 1864. The Kearsarge was commanded by Captain John A. Winslow. She was built in 1861, and is still afloat, being used as a school ship. The Alabama was a bark-rigger steamer of 1,150 tons, built in England, and was commanded by Captain Raphael Semmes. The engagement lasted sixty-two minutes, when the Alabama struck her flag, sinking shortly after. Captain Semmes and forty of his crew escaped by means of the English yacht Deerhound, which had been hovering in the vicinity by a previous understanding. On the night of October 27, 1864, Lieutenant W. B. Cushing, with thirteen officers and men, volunteers from the vessels of the North Atlantic squadron, went in a launch up the Roanoke river to Plymouth, N. C., where the Confederate ram, Albemarle, was lying alongside of a wharf protected by a boom of logs. In the midst of a heavy fire the launch was jumped over the boom, the torpedo spar lowered and fired by Cushing, which sank the ram. At the same instant a shot from the ram sank the launch and all the crew except Cushing and one sailor were killed, captured or drowned. Cushing, who managed by swimming and hiding in the swamp to reach one of the gunboats in safety, received a vote of thanks

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert.

There are several Chinese and Korean flags. One of the latter, which belonged to the Korean generalissimo, was captured June 11, 1871. Admiral John Rodgers had been ordered to accompany the United States minister to China to the Korean capital to make a treaty. The Koreans with notice fired upon the fleet. Explanation was at once demanded by Rodgers, and as none was offered he attacked the Korean forts after waiting ten days.

The first United States ensign ever seen in Japan is marked No. 19 in the collection. It floated at the masthead of the flagship of Commodore N. C. Perry when he landed at Uraga, province of Sagami, near Yokohama, July 15, 1853.

Lake Huron and Lake Superior.

A magnificent summer trip is enjoyed by taking this "fresh water sea voyage" from Sarnia, Ontario, to Fort William, Ontario, through these great inland seas. This year new steamers have been added to the Northern Navigation Co.'s fleet, and the finest and fastest vessels on the Great Lakes will fly the house flag of this popular Company. The steamers run in connection with the Grand Trunk Railway System, and all particulars, rates and descriptive literature, etc., can be had for the asking by applying to G. W. Vaux, 917 Merchants Loan & Trust Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

"Do you ever write on an empty stomach?" asked the mere man, "Sir," exclaimed the literary person, "I am a poet, not a tattoo artist!"

RADICAL CHANGE IN REGULATIONS

Governing Sale of Viruses, Serums and Toxins.

Recent Epidemic of Foot and Mouth Disease in Cattle Direct—New Inspection.

LICENSE SYSTEM IS ADOPTED

Washington, June 7.—Radical changes in the old regulations governing the sale of viruses, serums, toxins and analogous products have been made in the new set of regulations just promulgated by Surgeons General Torney, of the army; Rixey, of the navy, and Wyman, of the public health and marine hospital service. The new regulations are the outgrowth of the recent epidemic of foot and mouth disease in cattle, it having been discovered that in all probability the disease was caused by the importation from abroad of infected vaccine virus. The revision is designed to further safeguard the propagation and sale of vaccine virus and a closer supervision over the importation of the same.

While it is a disputed question that the foot and mouth disease can be transmitted to human beings through infected virus, the officials do not wish to take any chances, and unusual steps have been taken to protect the public.

The new regulations provide that until announced an inspection will be made at least once a year of all establishments putting out serums and viruses, and licenses shall be issued only after the inspection of the establishments and examination of the products for which the license is desired.

Following report, cash wheat touched $1.65 in eastern markets, highest price since 1868. Contracts for this season's crop in Texas have advanced from $1.25 to $1.35 and upward. Millers eagerly taking crop at prevailing quotations. Threshers will start in many fields around Denton and Wichita Falls.

Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor
beside this: "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to woman, writes Mrs. O. Rhineault, of Vestal Center, N. Y. "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and jubilant health. It quickly cures Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Headache, Backache, Fainting and Dizzy Spells; soon builds up the weak, ailing and sickly. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

Credit Due Another.
The Philadelphia Record calls attention to the fact that Major L'Enfant is not entitled to sole credit for the architectural plans followed in the creation of Washington, Associated with L'Enfant was Major Andrew Ellicott of Pennsylvania, formerly surveyor general of that state. Both were employed by the commissioners for the federal district, but L'Enfant quarreled with the commission and was discharged in 1792. Ellicott remained until the new capital was made ready for occupancy and was responsible for alterations in L'Enfant's plans and additions to them. He was therefore an important factor in designing and creating the City of Washington.—New York Tribune.

NATURE'S HAIR RESTORER

SAGE AND SULPHUR
HAIR RESTORER
One Great Reason Why
This Great Hair Beautifier and Color Restorer
Produces Such Remarkable Results
Sulphur is a Natural Element of the Hair.
When there is not a sufficient amount of sulphur in the hair, it loses its life, color and strength, turns gray, and falls out. There are many forms of sulphur, but only one kind that is suitable for treatment of the hair and scalp; and that is the kind used in preparing WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER.
We Have the Secret, and We Give You the Benefit
Of It At An Exceedingly Low Price
IT IS NOT A DYE
For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair, and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

ENGLAND AND MEN OF GENIUS.

Though Called a Nation of Shopkeepers, Poets Grew Among Them.

Victor Hugo once said in his lordly generalizing way that it was Shakespeare who prevented England from being only another Carthage; and it is indeed true that but for our great poets we should not hold the place we do hold in the opinion of Europe. Because of them we do not wince when we are described as a nation of shopkeepers, for they prove that we, like the Florentines and Venetians, are something more than that. M. Bourget has expressed the general wonder of cultivated foreigners that the English nation, which seems so matter of fact and even dull, should have produced two poets compared with whose works all other poetry seems to be prose; and these poets are the very two who are to be honored today in Rome. It is certainly a fact that more than any other nation we produce men of genius who vary extremely from our normal type, and we never have produced more wonderful sports than Shelley and Keats.—London Times.

Stung for 15 Years
by Indigestion's pangs—trying many doctors and $200.00 worth of medicine in vain, B. F. Ayer, of Ingleside, N. C., at last used Dr. King's New Life Pills, and writes they wholly cured him. They cure Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bowel troubles. 25c at all druggists.

It is within the power of man to drive infectious diseases from the earth.—Pasteur.

NATIONAL BANKS ARE PROSPEROUS

During Current Fiscal Year
Received $4,826,060,384.

Exceeds U. S. Supply by More Than Billion and Half—Increase of 155 in Number.

NATIONAL BANKS DURING YEAR.

Washington, June 7.—During the current fiscal year the National banks of the country have received in individual deposits $4,826,060,384, which is more than a billion and a half dollars in excess of the outstanding money supply of the United States. The year which will close with the present month has been one of exceptional prosperity for the national banks. Since May 14, 1908, there has been a net increase of 155 in the number of national banks.

Of the number that went into liquidation 701 were in Oklahoma, who withdrew from the national system to reorganize under the state law to gain advantage of the state law. Notwithstanding the unusual number of banks withdrawing from the national system the aggregate capital, surplus and profits of the banks reporting on April 28, 1909, amounted to $1,729,010, or an increase of $58,586,428 during the year. Loans and discounts increased $434,763,993; deposits $513,403,594, and total resources $774,261,145.

The cash in banks on April 23 amounted to $926,776,902, an increase of $25,324,572 over the call of May 14, 1908, although between the dates mentioned the government withdrew from the national banks $111,256,542.11, leaving still on deposit $70,401,822.99.

Superintendent Billington advertised in only one newspaper.

Citizens from Heath, the location of the new county High school, were present and the deed of the land was an issue before the board. A. F. Hill and Henry Harting agreed to deed six acres, but Mr. Harting did not want to destroy part of his orchard. A long narrow strip of land, containing six acres, was offered to the board, but it was refused. The board demanded that a frontage of two acres in length on the Metropolis and Lovelaceville road be given. Trustee Davis said he favored locating the county High school at another location unless the county was given a choice location with a frontage of two acres.

The land owners will exchange land in order that the county may be given what is wanted, but the board decided to keep out of any middle and let the land owners adjust their differences and when they are ready to deed the proper amount of land as wanted by the school board then the trustees will accept the deed.

A bonus of $1,600 was offered to the school board in addition to the free site by the citizens of Heath for the location of the county High school. In the petition that was circulated to raise the bonus it was stipulated that the money was to be collected by a treasurer, who was to be elected by the county school board. The citizens asked the board to elect a treasurer, but asked that the board allow him a commission of 7½ per cent for collecting the money. The trustees rejected any such commission, and the expressions were that the citizens should collect the money that has been subscribed and not put that on the board.

Henry Harting was elected by the board as treasurer, but he was not given any commission for collecting the funds.

The free transportation of school children, to the county school received further discussion in the afternoon. It was decided to combine the pupils of the Arcadia, Lang and Lone Oak schools into one, as an experiment before adopting the plan for all buildings. It is thought that the expense can be eliminated that the school term can be increased to eight months. All of the money secured from the state must be used for teachers' salaries, and can not be used for any other purpose, but the funds for paying the wagon drivers will be taken from the county levy fund.

Four wagons, it is thought, will be necessary to convey the children to the school in the district decided on as an experiment. The contract for carrying the children will be awarded the best and lowest bidder. It is estimated that the cost of each wagon will be from $20 to $25 a month. This money will come from the county taxes, while fewer teachers will be required, and the saving in salary will be applied for a longer school term.

How Wife of Western Congressman Made a Hit at Mrs. Taft's Reception.

Washington, June 5.—Mrs. Taft recently gave a big afternoon party to the wives of notables and one of her guests was the consort of a congressman from the Pacific coast. She is a smiling, clever little woman with the frankness and independence characteristic of the west. In the course of events, President Taft, in his very best humor, came to the east room to meet the friends of Mrs. Taft. He met Mrs. Pacific Coast. They had a little chat which led the president to remark that he had not met the lady's husband.

"Yes, and that is not all, Mr. President," she said with a smile, "You are not going to meet him."

"How do you explain that?" queried the chief executive.

"Well, he called at the executive office, waited four hours and even then was unable to see you. He said he would never go there again."

"What else did he say?" asked the president.

"If you demand a strictly truthful answer, Mr. President," she said, as her eyes twinkled, "I must tell you that he said you could 'go to hell.'"

The president laughed heartily and requested her to tell her husband he wished to see him next day. The congressman did call next day and, thanks to his wife, now maintains pleasant relations with the white house instead of the feud he had evolved as the result of his four-hour wait.

Attorney General Wickersham's

any garb that might possibly be construed as showing lack of respect for the black-robed justices.

Several years ago, a United Press reporter who was not regularly assigned to the supreme court, was sent there by the Washington bureau to take the place of the regular court man, who was ill. The reporter had been "covering" various executive departments of the government and used a bicycle to enable him to get from place to place quickly. When court time arrived, he pedaled up to the capitol dressed in his knickerbockers.

The doorkeeper was shocked. No amount of persuasion or explanation by the astonished reporter could gain him entrance to the court room. Finally through a special arrangement with the marshal, he was allowed to sit in a small ante-room where he could hear the proceedings but where his offending garb would be out of sight.

A White Strawberry.

The production of a white strawberry which bears all the year round, instead of at certain seasons only, is claimed by Hugo H. Lillenthal, a Berkeley horticulturist. He is a German, who has produced various creations of an unusual kind in the way of fruit and flowers. The white strawberry, his most recent creation, is the result of a long series of experiments with crossing varieties under different conditions. Lillenthal claims to have produced two distinct varieties of berries, which will bear through the full year, making a Christmas berry easily obtainable. One of these is white, the other red, and both are said to be of excellent flavor.

The less a man has to fuss about the easier it is for him to grumble.

ENJOY BANQUET AT THE INITIATION YESTERDAY.

Covers Laid For Three Hundred—One Third the Number Were Initiated.

Several hundred Knights of Columbus had an enjoyable day yesterday when a large class of candidates was initiated, and the Fancy Farm council was installed. The candidates were initiated in the Red Men's hall on North Fourth street, and despite the fact the weather was warm the lodge members had an enjoyable time. In the morning the members and candidates attended mass at St. Francis de Sales Catholic church.

After the conclusion of the initiation last night a banquet was enjoyed at the "Three Links" building. Covers were laid for 300 and a feast was enjoyed. Col. John J. Dorlan presided as toastmaster, and besides the set program of speeches there was a large number of impromptu addresses. G. L. Drury, of Morganfield, was unable to be present and the Rev. Father McNeil, of Morganfield, took his place.

The banquet was served in excellent style, and the room was decorated with flowers, and the colors of the lodge. A large number of visitors were present. A special Pullman brought the Louisville party.

It is far easier to accumulate a past than to use it in your business.
